

Since 1992 Jim Wagner has had the opportunity to train dozens of law enforcement, corrections, probation, and military units worldwide in firearms, tactics, defensive tactics, and various interdiction courses

Sergeant Jim Wagner was on the Orange County Sheriff's Dignitary Protection Unit (DPU) as a Team Leader 2000 to 2002

Jim Wagner during helicopter assault training with U.S. Customs Aviation. Jim was in charge of overall safety and training scenarios

For years Jim Wagner worked closely with Division Schools at Camp Pendleton. Here he is at an Advanced U.S. Marines Sniper School

Jim Wagner trained Spanish counterterrorists in sniper craft, defensive tactics, small arms firearms courses, and protective services

Jim Wagner has trained dozens of American SWAT teams in the United States like the Placentia Police Department in California

In 1995 Jim Wagner was in charge of a Special Forces training event that involved over 100 marines and soldiers at Camp Pendleton, CA